NEWTON WINNERS OF national science talent search, Reinier Beeuwkes III, left, and Dushau Mitrovich, center, are congratulated by Congressman Laurence Curtis, on their clean-sweep of top places in test held in Washington, D. C., over the weekend. The boys are classmates at Newton High School. Both plan to be scientists.

Two Newton High School Boys Win Top Places Over 25,000 American Youths in National Science Tests

In a truly spectacular showing, the Newton public school system won the attention of the entire nation this week as two young students in its High School topped a field of 25,000 brilliant entries in the annual Westinghouse Science Talent Search. Winner of this year's search was Reinier Beeuwkes III, 17, of 123 Sargent street, Newton. A cyclotron he built from a physician's discarded diathermy machine and

Newton. A cyclotron he built from a physician's discarded diathermy machine and $121 of assorted parts was good enough for the top prize — a $7500 scholarship.

In second place was Dushan Mitrovich, 18, of 105 Waban road, Chestnut Hill — classmate, pal and co-science enthusiast of Reinier. To Dushan went a $6000 scholarship for a flyable space platform so simple, according to the boy himself, that "even a bear could be taught to fly a larger model."

The brilliant Newton pair received their awards and the adulation of a tremendous crowd in a banquet at Hotel Statler, Washington.

- SENATOR VEST

In the eyes of his dog, man is worthy of this blind devotion, unwavering loyalty and everlasting vigilance because he is a Superior Being. It is for man to express this superiority in kindness rather than force, in sympathetic understanding rather than brutal disregard.

There is evidence of neither kindness nor understanding in the Newton PTA Council's petition designed to place our dogs in bondage. Join with others by opposing the full time leash law in the Newton Graphic poll and on the coupon below.

A Couple Of Newton Boys

Newton owes a debt to a couple of boys named Reinier Beeuwkes and Dushan Mitrovich.

So does the nation,

They have come along at just the right time.
Consider the time. Deep in the thought processes of every serious-minded American today there's more than a little doubt about our exact spot in an uneasy world. A nation which could turn out millions of automobiles with speed and efficiency; a nation which could meet every production challenge with the might of a Titan, suddenly found itself in a perplexed position recently.

That's when Russia succeeded in putting Sputnik into the outer atmosphere. And then the same Russia which had one of the globe's highest illiteracy rates, decade after decade, chided this young Republic.

'You haven't see anything, yet," they told us. All the while this nation was fretting over juvenile delinquency; civil rights and what some feared to be a breakdown in our fundamental educational system. Then along came two fresh-faced, high school boys like Reinier and Dushan.

Two boys from the same city—two boys from the same neighborhood—two boys with a normal viewpoint

We won't go into their accomplishment in winning first and second places in a competition which saw 25,000 fine young Americans striving.

That accomplishment can speak for itself.

We'll only point out that a couple of Newton High School boys have done more than bring credit to themselves, their families and to Newton and its school system.

They've set an example; they've taught a lesson for the entire nation.

Political Overtones

raged back and forth. The Governor clearly was waging an uphill struggle, but he was throwing so much energy and force into the fight that there was genuine doubt as to what its final outcome would be

That was in 1957. The picture is altogether different Governor Furcolo was on his way to Puerto Rico for a 10-day rest when the recent hearing was held on the sales tax bill. If he had even a casual interest in the arguments advanced by the sales tax exponents, he gave no evidence of it. The legislative committee on taxation received no communication from him before, during or after the hearing. No member of the gubernatorial staff appeared to voice his views. e his views.

Why is Governor Furcolo sitting out the 1958 sales the street without being jumped on by friendly dogs who soil tax fight after being in the forefront and the banner-

There could be several different answers to that quesall. The same need exists now for a sales tax that prevailed last year. If anything it's greater.

One answer is that Governor Furcolo undoubtedly recognizes that where he had at least a fighting chance of achieving the passage of a sales tax last year, he would have practically no chance this year.

That is because it is an election year, but that requires a little explaining.

A good many legislators who were willing to vote for a sales tax last year, most of whom did vote for it when it came before the House of Representatives, aren't prepared to do so this year.

They feel that after the initial shock and impact of the sales tax had worn off, most people would have adjusted themselves to it and would gradually have come to realize that it wasn't the painful bugaboo its opponents pictured it as being.

But they figure that adjustment would take about six months. In other words, if the sales tax went into effect on Jan. 1 of this year or on some date late in 1957, they do not believe it would have been much of an issue in the coming election because the voters would have become accustomed to the tax and accepted it.

However, they're not willing, in deference to their own political lives, to have that adjustment taking place at election time or to have the people looking forward with apprehension and misgivings during an election to a sales tax which would go into operation in the near future.

That's why some legislators who voted for a sales tax last year wouldn't vote for one this year. They want a sufficient period of adjustment to elapse between the sales tax and an election. That's why it is unlikely a sales tax ever will be enacted in an election year, whether it be 1958, 1960 or 1962.

A number of persons have written in to ask why Governor Furcolo, if he has the courage of his convictions, didn't wage the same fight for a sales tax this year that he made in 1958, even though he knew his effort would be predestined to defeat. Was it because he was afraid of being hurt politically?

Only Mr. Furcolo can give the precise answer to that question. Our guess, however, is that the answer would be two-fold.

1. He probably didn't want the stigma of making a losing fight on any issue in an election year. Very few politicians will wade into a controversy which they know they can't win unless there are impelling reasons

2. The Governor also may have been reluctant to further antagonize certain labor leaders by precipitating where in this paper stating that a sales tax fight in an election year.

It's also possible, of course, that the Governor was motivated by the same reasoning as the legislators who desire a period of adjustment between the enactment of a sales tax and an election.

The PTA and Dogs indeed. How busy can the PTA get? With all the real problems facing education today the New ton PTA is worried about Dogs. It had better be more concerned about leashing prowlers now busily engaged in destroying property around public schools and libraries. This is costing the city far more money than any amount of "dog damage" could do.

Now the members of the PTA know about these young marauders. But do they consider them important? I was laughed down at a PTA meeting when I suggested a bicycle rack was necessary equipment in the school yard.

I was told it would be destroyed as soon as it was put in the school yard. My PTA was not concerned about this type of damage—only that done by dogs. It's unbelievable.

Yours truly,
A. BUNTEN.
P.S. We wouldn't dare to let our dog run. It would be stoned to death in no time.

I have taken the trouble to go to the Newton Health Department to look over the records of the last ten years in the matter of the relationship of dog

Answer to Mr. Halper

Editor,

Newton Graphic My answer to Mr. Alfred W. Halper insert in the Newton

Yes, Mr. Halper, your dog can guard your person. But how about other persons? That's why we seek a dog leash law to prevent a repetition of the incidents of 390 persons having been bitten by dogs last year. You seem to overlook this, Sir. Yes, Mr. Halper, a dog leash law to guard and protect our children in their going and coming from school; Mr Halper, can you or any other dog owner deny us the right o protect our children against can protect your home and onus is placed entirely upon the property, but how about my home and property and hundreds of others who are constantly being harassed by packs of dogs on the loose doing untold damage to lawns shrubs, gardens, etc. Let alone the messes they deposit on lawns that is stepped on and tracked into our homes. How disgusting! Mr. Halper, you refer to our dog as being your most herished possession and man's chance, neither is a biting dogbest friend. On the contrary, man's best friend is still man himself, the ability to cultivate man's friendship by respecting man's rights, privileges and feelings is something to be cherished above everything else. A dog leash law would certainly foster better rela-tionship between neighbors.

Mr. Halper, nobody wants to deprive the dog of his freedom. By fencing in his property, the dog owner can retain his dog's freedom. All we want is a dog leash law to prevent dogs from roaming around on the loose causing physical damage to persons and property.

In your article you say, "to my knowledge." This can be interpreted as a knowledge that s limited in the facts relative to the dog leash situation when you refer to a handful in favor of such a law. I would not consider hundreds of people who are in favor of a dog leash law as a mere handful.

What Is Freedom? Editor.

Newton Graphic:

What is a dog's freedom that is being guarded so zealously? It should be free to love its owners, free to play with them if a pet, free to guard their home if a watchdog, but free to bother people? NO! A dog has no guaranteed freedom, it is not a person, it is an item of property. Can you leave your car wherever you wish? NO! Why should you leave your dog where you wish?

The inference in many of the advertisements and letters in The Graphic is that these op-ponents of a full-time would favor a part-time law. Where were they then when, last year, PTA Council's proposal for a "School-Time" leash law was laughed out of an aldermanic hearing? Obviously, they op-pose any restriction on a dog's so-called "rights" to interfere with people's activities. If a dog bothers you in the street or in your own yard, or if a dog annoys children in the school-yard, the first step under the present law is der the present law is to ascertain the owner. Supports Leash Law

NEWTON GRAPHIC I am writing this letter in order to state my support for the proposed leash law.

The problem of roaming, untrained dogs has reached a point where, unless preventive action is taken, tragedy in some form surely must result.

We might possibly disrelimit playground activity, that streets and playgrounds, but we cannot disregard the fact that the manner in which they are now permitted to behave constitutes a positive danger to our community.

The proponents of the leash law have defined the problem, brought to bear related evidence to back their assertions, and have suggested a workable solution to eliminate the probiem. On the other hand, opposition has not, in any way, objected or convincingly demonstrated the reasons for their opposition - indeed, for the most past, it would appear that those letter-writers who are not in favor of the suggested controls either ignore the problem or minimize it and obscure it in sentimentality.

Sincerely yours, MRS. MARK POPLIN 30 Voss terrace, Newton Centre

Where You Save DOES Make a Difference

by don herold

How to save --- even with kids

Children are expensive little items, but their arrival makes it all the more necessary to save for their future care, clothing, school and college. The only way to lick this is to SAVE HARDER.

— save first before you spend — and put as much as possible every week or every month in Watertown Federal quickly and "leave it lay."

If you're saving for college, for instance, college will be about one-third "cheaper," because about a third of your accumulation will be dividends that Watertown Federal will credit to your account.

Just Flip of Tiny Fist Filled Street With Red Engines

The super-market on Boyl-ston street, Chestnut Hill, had lost her interest. She's a gal of action and she could see nothing exciting in pushing wire carts from one food stall to another. So she did what comes naturally for a little Miss of four when the craving for excitement came on. She created her own. The fire alarm box within the big mysterious so she reached up and pulled it. Pretty soon the street outside was filled with apparatus. Mummy's face was red. The little miss was delighted. She hasn't experlenced such excitement since she climbed out of bed before dawn on Christmas Day.

A petition of Belli Bros. Co. for a license to store inflamma-bles at 76 Silver Lake avenue, Newton, was referred this week by the Board of Aldermen to the Franchises and Licenses Committee for study.

The referral action was caus ed by the opposition by four abutters to the establishment by the petitioner of a construcion business on filled-in land of Silver Lake. Speaking for the Belli Bros. Co., Frank Mandell stated that the land is in a manufacturing zone and that the company would comply with all the requirements of the Fire Department. Fire Lt. Lawrence N. Clark reported at this public hearing that the department nas approved the request subject to the usual restrictions.

Edward E. Scribner, of 172 Linwood avenue, heading the opposition, stated that four abutters object to the danger resulting from the storage of inflam-mables and to the increase in traffic that would be caused by the business. He pointed out that children in the area have already set a number of fires and asserted that the traffic situation in the already-congested area would be aggravated by the business vehicles. Approval to a second order for the reconstruction of Nahanton street, from Winchester street, to the Needham Line, Newton Highlands was given. Director of Public Works Willard S. Pratt, reported that the street will be widened to 60 feet in connection with the re-

For United Community

The Chamber of Commerce of the city of Newton is faced with a rather unique problem - that is, having one Chamber represent the various villages which comprise our city.

As you know, practically each of our thirteen villiges has its own shopping area, post office, schools and churches. As these individual sections comprise the city as a whole, the local Chamber of Commerce must look upon the entity rather than the component parts. It may not allow itself the luxury of determining what is best for this or that section. Rather, it must consistently keep in mind the welfare of the entire city.

JUSTIN T. HORAN

Justin T. Horan has served as the executive director of the Chamber of Commerce since a whole and where future plans October 1957. Mr. Horan came to Newton from Manchester, N. H., where he served as assistant Executive Director of the Manchester Chamber of Com-

Mr. Horan is a native of New Hampshire. He was born and brought up in New Hampshire and served in the United States Navy during World War II. He is a graduate of the University of New Hampshire where he received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration in 1950 and was commis-sioned a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army Reserve. He was called on active duty in September of 1950 and served in Germany until 1953 when he was returned to reserve status.

He has added to his three years Chamber experience by attending Northeastern Institute for commercial executives which is held each summer at Yale University for Chamber managers in the Northeastern part of the United States.

The general office work at the Newton Chamber of Commerce is capably handled by Miss Maud Fox. She acts not only as Mr. Horan's secretary but as general office manager, bookkeeper and handles the hun-dreds of requests which come into the Chamber each week. The present staff of the New-on Chamber of Commerce will be increased upon the conclusion of the forthcoming membership drive. This added staff will be necessary to give the services which are needed by the expected 450 members of the Chamber.

As explained by Mr. Horan,

The Chamber office is as close as the member's phone, and the wealth of material and data which is available at the Chamber office is available to all members for the asking."

The revitalized Newton Chamber of Commerce is in the process of becoming the leading business organization in the Newton area. To be completely representative of the thinking of all Newton business this organization must have among its members all the leading husinessmen in Newton. The Chamber has been and will coninue to be the vehicle whereby Newton businessmen solve the for the continuation of a pros-perous business climate in Newton are made.

Many Companies Reserving Tables

It was announced today by Justin T. Horan, Executive Director of the Chamber that table reservations for eight people or more are now being received from a number of companies. These reservations are being made on a first come first serve basis and he suggested that any firm or group that wishes to make a table reserva-tion do so at their earliest convenience by calling the Chamber office LA 7-4650.

The dinner is slated to be under way at 7 p.m. on Monday, March 7, at the Commonwealth Country Club.

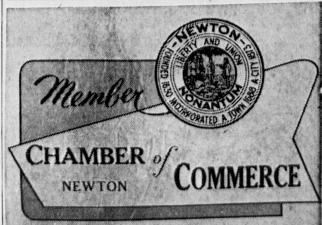

Chamber Represents You and Business Have you ever wondered:

"Who are the men behind the Newton Chamber of Com-merce?" The answer is deceptively simple, for the Chamber is composed of businessmen just like you. The members are a diversified group - druggists, realtors, restaurateurs, bankers, educators, utomotive manufacturers, dealers, tractors and many others

Almost every possible job classification is represented on the Board. In this way, different and sometimes diametrically opposed viewpoints are expressed. Q. Medically, what is the differ-ence between identical twins and ordinary twins?

A. First, let's start with a single birth. The fertilized egg begins to divide and rapidly forms a ball of cells from which the inball of cells from which the individual develops. If the cell ball splits, two individuals develop from the same egg. These are identical twins. They are of the same sex and are lookalikes. Twins of the other vallety come from two fertilized alikes. Twins of the other variety come from two fertilized eggs. These are called fraternal twins and have no greater resemblance than other brothers and sisters. Fraternal twins may or may not be of the same

Q. A large brain and high intelligence go hand in hand. True or false?

A. Mainly false. A professor of zoology at the University of Copenhagen says that within limits, the weight of the brain does not seem to have a bearing on intelligence. However, mental deficiency does occur when the number of brain cells are below a certain limit. No are below a certain limit. No one knows for sure what this

10th Win in Great Last Round Flurry Overtime -- 51-49

Joe DeNucci, whose backers have been believing he tends to tire toward the late rounds, turned in a brilliant eighth and final round against his old remesis, Sergeant Jackson game at Natick. Brown in a Mechanics Building,

The fast finish left Brown unanimous decision of the judges. It was Brown who had previously given the Newton iddleweight the most 'rouble of his professional career. Joe now has a record of 10 tory .

High-scoring wing Neil Doherty heads a list of re-turnees which includes Ed Ennis, John McMullen, Paul Daley, Harry Townes, John McDonald

Tom Daley, and goalies George Donovan and Jack Birmingham. Doherty, who led the team in scoring during the season just past, combined with Ennis to form two-thirds of this year's first line. McMullen, the captainelect, was the No. 3 defenseman while the two Daleys, Downes and McDonald all skated with the second line. Donovan and Birmingham alternated in the goal.

Full-Time Leash Law Favored 7-5 In Final Poll Tabulation

Hearing Next Monday Night Before Board of Aldermen

Newton residents recorded themselves in favor of a full-time leash-law by a margin of about 7-5 in the poll conducted by The Graphic to make possible an expression of public sentiment on the widely discussed and hotly disputed issue which will come before the Board of Aldermen next Monday night.

But opponents of the leash law, outvoted and outnum-bered, served notice today that they will carry their fight before the Aldermanic Board Monday evening in an all-out effort to prevent the enactment of a measure which would restrict the freedom of Newton's dogs.

administration were revealed.

The Newton legislator stated that the proposal for State determination of hospital rates, made by State Administration Commissioner Francis X. Lang, has the approval of the Gover-nor. Gibbs said that, when questioned on the proposal, Furcolo's only comment was that the measure was a step toward social-ized medicine and that "hospital rates are high in the sense that they are more han the people can pay." The Newton Senator commented that taxes also are high, "much higher than our people can afford to pay -- but this does not disturb the Gov-ernor who submitted the highest budget in the State's history to the Legislature."

Senator Gibbs joined a long list of distinguished medical, religious, and civic leaders of Mas-sachusetts who opposed the Lang proposal for state approv-al of hospital rates at the Commission hearing.

partment, replace apparatus, $20,000 for 1959, $20,000 for 1960 and $45,000 in 1961. Library — Newton Centre branch addition, $135,000 and Newton Lower Falls branch ad-dition, $15,000, both in 1960.

School Department — New high school, $1,300,000 in 1959 and a similar amount in 1960; Claffin School addition, $60,000; Burr School addition, $220,000; Spaulding School addition, $100 000; Warren Junior High addition, $200,000, all in 1959; Warren Junior High addition, $500.000 in 1960; Horace Mann School replacement, $60,000 in 1960; $150,000 in 1961 and $150,000 in 1962; Meadowbrook Junior High addition, $50,000 in 1961; $200, 000 in 1962, and $400,000 in 1963; Hyde Schol replacement, $245-000 in 1963; Day Junior High School addition, $200,000 in 1961

New England Electric Ups Two Men To Officer Status

Highlands Folk Oppose Carhop Restaurant Plan

Newton isn't ready for curbstone service by carhops dress-ed in fetching costumes.

That was the gist of the sentiment expressed at City Hall this week by a delegation of 108 persons from the Newton Highlands area. They left with claims and rules committee of the board of aldermen a peti-tion they claimed was signed by themselves and other residents of the Highlands—a total of 657 names.

The petition requested that there be no grant of a permit for a carhop-type restaurant at 980 Boylston street, as proposed by the Old Colony Develop-ment Corp. The restaurant would be operated by the Waldorf System.

Opposition was also recorded to a petition brought by Myrtle Vanderklish who wants to conert her home at 97 Lake ave nue, Newton Centre, into an 18-bed nursing home.

Likewise opposed was the permission sought by the New-ton Savings Bank for a change of the zoning laws necessary to carry into effect its plans for the construction of a bank at Beacon street and Crescent avenue, Newton Centre.

All three petitions were taken under advisement.

Directors of New England Electric System have elected Albert E. Westwood of West Newton, assistant treasurer, and R. Leigh FitzGerald of Waban, secretary, according to president Irwin L. Moore.

Westwood, a veteran of 35 years with the system, is a graduate of Northeastern University. He started in the utility business as an office boy and has held supervisory and executive offices in the accounting and treasury departments of the city planning board and the claims and rules committee of was appointed general auditor, holding this position until his promotion to assistant treas-

These Are The Facts... In The Leash Law Controversy!

A FULL TIME LEASH LAW, petitioned by the Newton PTA Council, calls for the adoption of a law to prohibit dogs from running loose anywhere in the City. A public hearing on this petition is scheduled at City Hall for Monday, March 17, 7:30 p.m.

Expert Fitting Service — Charge Accounts Invited

ONLY FIVE OUT OF TWENTY-NINE SCHOOL PTA Executive Boards favored this request. The majority were and are opposed to this petition.

THE PTA REQUEST WAS A PUBLICITY STUNT contrived to extort from the Board of Aldermen some less restrictive measure to solve the dog problem at the schools.

MANY UNTRUE STATEMENTS have been circulated by the PTA Council. Through its representatives, the Council charges that there are more cases of dog bite than that of contagious diseases; that, "the menace of dogs" and dog bites are "an ever growing problem as Newton's dog population in-this situation at once.

DOG BITES HAVE ACTUALLY DECLINED STEADILY during the past few years. The incidents of contagious diseases were actually eight times greater than that of dog bites in 1957. These are recorded Board of Health statistics.

OUR DOG POPULATION HAS NOT IN-CREASED. The City Clerk reports that more dogs were licensed in 1955 than in 1956 and 1957. Police Department records show no evidence of a growing dog problem.

WHERE IS A SAFE PLACE? The Council safe place before you release him. Where in Newton will this be if the leash law is adopted?

LEASH LAWS ARE NON-EXISTENT in many thousands of cities and towns. Where some few do exist there is considerable variance in the degree of restraint. Almost all dog experts favor obedience training over a full time leash; and more dogs are obedience trained today than ever before.

THE SCHOOL COMMITTEE HAS NOT FAVORED a full time leash law, reports Assistant Superintendent Charles O. Richter. The Committee merely indicates that it is aware of a dog problem at the schools and that, "it will support such legislation as the Board of Aldermen deems appropriate."

TWO TO ONE AGAINST THE LEASH LAW is reported by the Memorial School PTA, the only PTA group to conduct a general membership poll. President A. M. Dow deserves commendation for initiating this poll and for his firm and consistent opposition to the

THE LEASH LAW IS A DEATH SEN TENCE for many of our dogs. A broken leash, an open door or a slipped collar will spell certain death to a dog completely unprepared for the danger of motor traffic.

THE LEASH LAW IS UNENFORCIBLE. The Newton Police are already overloaded with matters of law enforcement. This added burden would unnecessarily demoralize the Department and curtail activities of a more pressing nature.

THERE WILL BE A NOISY REBELLION if the leash law is passed. Five thousand dogs chained to backyard stakes are sure to echo my own feeble protest of their loss of freedom. The thunderous howl will be fit retribution to dog hater and dog lover alike; the one for his intolerance and brutal disregard, the other for his complacency in time of crisis.

Committee and School PTAs will enthusiastically support it.

THAT THE BOARD OF ALDERMEN REJECT THE PEND-ING PETITION REQUESTING A FULL TIME LEASH LAW; THAT IN ITS STEAD THE BOARD CONSIDER AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING DOGS FROM RUNNING LOOSE IN PUBLIC SCHOOL BUILDINGS AND ON PUBLIC SCHOOL GROUNDS DURING SCHOOL HOURS.

No added restrictions need be imposed on our dogs to accomplish the desired objective.

> Alfred W. Halper Member, Memorial School P. T. A.

Cruelty Prevention Society Head Favors Freedom For All Dogs

Eric H. Hansen, president of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, today issued a state-ment opposing the enactment of a dog leash law in the city of Newton.

'A law which would punish 95% of the dogs in the city in order to control the 5% that may be misbehaving is not justifiable" he stated. "The fault is with the owners who often fail to appreciate the serious responsibility involved in owning a dog. I am sure that it is comparatively easy to enact legislation but usually very difficult and in these days extremely costly to provide personnel to enforce new

"I hope the city of Newton will not enact such a law but will continue to permit its citizens to own these pets and enjoy their daily lives without the restraint of a leash," he concluded.

FACTS NOT FICTION • FACTS NOT EMOTION FACTS NOT SENTIMENT An Open Letter to

Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr. Board of Aldermen Citizens of Newton

Fact Number 1

Because of the large number of dogs and the increasing number of densely populated areas, dog control is an urgent and many-sided problem. Dogs on the loose are a serious nuisance. The damage done by them to gardens, shrubbery and lawns is overwhelming. Dogs can be and have been, the cause of automobile accidents resulting in injury or death to both humans and themselves. They are a source of danger by biting and as disease carriers are a menace to their own kind Is any of this the dog's fault? We doubt it. The disobedient dog or the wandering stray is a serious reflection upon his master, who should learn the responsibilities of dog ownership or not be allowed to own a dog. Excerpt from "Control Your Dog," Our Fourfooted Friends, published by the Animal Rescue League of Boston, June, 1956. Carlton E. Buttrick, Editor, and President of Animal Recue League.)

Fact Number 2

The first thing a dog owner should learn is never to let a dog run loose People who don't have time to exercise their dogs and, because of it, let them out of the kennel unleashed, are doing their pets much more harm than they would by simply leaving them kenneled until they can be properly exercised. All kinds of little nagging diseases and digestive troubles can be caused by spoiled food your pet picks up while on the loose. (Statement by Dr. James Andrew Baker, Director of the Cornell Research Laboratory for Diseases of Dogs, appearing in "Is Your Dog a Delinquent?", Coronet Magazine, March

Fact Number 3

For the sake of the dog in these days when some estimates are that two out of every five dogs are killed by motor vehicles and for the sake of friends, neighbors, acquaintances, etc., no dog should be given the "freedom of the community." Either the dog should be in your house or in a pen or a fenced yard on your place. Taken out, he should be on a leash. (Excerpt from "Modern Living Requires Dog to Be Trained", Boston Sunday Globe, February 16, 1958, by K. S. Bartlett.)

Fact Number 4

Dogs should be taken out-not let out. Many difficulties between dog owners and their neighbors would vanish if the dog were accompanied by a member of the family when he is out. Also, we know from experience that a high percentage of the dogs involved in traffic accidents come from homes that permit their dogs to roam without supervision. (Excerpt from "Dogs Can Be Good Neighbors, Too", Better Homes and Gardens Magazine, February, 1957, by Dr. Wayne H. Riser.)

Fact Number 5

KEEP DOGS AWAY FROM SCHOOL AREA - Dog owners were urged today to keep their pets at home when the children go to school. . . . Dr. Eric H. Hansen of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals said there has been an increasing number of dog bite cases throughout the state. (Boston Traveler, September, 1957.)

Fact Number 6

Whereas roaming dogs interfere with school activities and are a hazard to the safety of the children in and around school premises and to the passing of children to and from school, the School Committee does respectfully advise the Board of Aldermen that it is in favor of such legislation as will alleviate that situation. (Communication from Newton School Committee to Newton Board of Aldermen.)

An Excellent Decision

One of the unpreparedness items which the nation found on its agenda of things to do right away, when World War II caught up with us, concerned language bar-

Fortunately we were able to recruit enough linguists versed in German and Italian, but there were few Americans upon whom Uncle Sam could place his hands as far as the Japanese were concerned.

The language barrier in the Far East and in the Pacific campaigns proved to be costly for a while. We found, or at least our military found, that knowledge of the enemy's tongue is almost necessary in these days of high-geared intelligence work and other matters connected with the successful prosecution of war.

We set up a system to turn out young men who had a command of Japanese as well as English. Yale University was one of the agents which helped to bail us out on that score. It wasn't an easy task. It required time and you can't afford to lose much time in war.

Newton school authorities have taken a step which further redounds to the credit of our local schools in adopting the Russian language as an elective in our high

By that we don't mean that we'll need a knowledge of Russian if the cold war ever turns hot. Whether that catastrophe happens or not, we need Americans who can speak Russian today and we'll need a lot more of them in

Even for assistance in the race to catch up with the Russians in the interplanetary race we'll need men who know the Russian as well as the English language.

Newton authorities are setting an example for public school authorities everywhere in this decision. It's an example which not only high schools but our colleges as

Political Overtones

The reason the withholding tax bill seems to have a much better chance of eventual passage than it did a few weeks ago is that the Associated Industries of Massachusetts to some degree has revised its position on the meas-

Last year the A.I.M. made an all-out fight against proposal and was largely responsible for accomplishits defeat.

A few days ago, the organization, which represents 2000 manufacturing concerns in Massachusetts, made public the results of a survey it had conducted to ascertain how much the withholding tax would cost business and industrial firms.

In its statement the A.I.M. revealed that the bookkeeping work involved in the withholding tax system would throw a proportionately heavier burden upon small businessmen than it would upon the big business and industrial companies.

Its report declared that the provision in the bill that employers be permitted to retain 1 percent of the taxes sons are, I believe, neither emothey collect in order to cover their own costs might be adequate to compensate some of the larger companies but that such a law is basically and would fall far short of meeting the expenses of the smaller

But the important point is that the A.I.M. did not call for the defeat of the withholding tax bill, as it did a year ago. Instead, it simply presented the facts and figures it had assembled and then declared that if a withholding system is adopted adequate provisions should be made in the law to compensate small businessmen for the expense which would be imposed upon

If the Legislature does not come up with an adequate plan of compensation, the likelihood is the A.I.M. will fight the bill and defeat it. But a number of legislators assert that the A.I.M. position is a reasonable one and that it would be only fair that businessmen, whether large or small, be compensated for the expense which would be imposed upon them.

It is interesting to note that the A.I.M. found that for small business concerns, which means those em-ploying less than 100 workers, the withholding system would represent an average additional expense of $3.40 per employee per year.

That breaks down to a figure of slightly less than 7 cents per employee per week which would appear to be a rather conservative estimate.

The big business and industrial plants, which have large staffs of workers and elaborate equipment and machinery, can absorb the impact of the withholding system at a much smaller per employee cost.

It now seems evident that legislative leaders accept the logic of the A.I.M. arguments, that a satisfactory compensation formula probably will be worked out and the bill passed

That will mean big financial windfalls next year for every city and town in Massachusetts. Why? Because the local communities will get their share of almost two years of State income taxes in a single year.

The State will get a three-months windfall since its fiscal year runs from July 1 to June 30. It will receive a full year's taxes for 1958 plus the withholding for the first three months of 1959. (The returns from the second quarter would not be received in time to be counted in the next fiscal year.)

But the cities and towns, which operate on a calendar year, will really reap a one-year financial harvest as the people of Massachusetts pay two years of State income taxes in a single year,

It should check the upward climb of tax rates and most cases make possible a reduction in the rates.

But city and town fathers will have to make the most of their respite from tax rate troubles while it lasts. They'll have some real headaches again when they begin canine! figuring their 1960 rates.

I have been somewhat con-cerned over the proposals of the leash law in Newton. It seems to me that the proposals do not really attack the problem at its roots

The problem, it appears, is that considerable damage done to people and property throughout the city. Now some of this is done by dogs, but no small portion is done by children. And as a matter of fact,

I am opposed to a full most cases of bad behavior on the part of dogs occurs when there are children around. (It is my recollection that when I was young the only time I was molested by dogs was after I had molested them.)) The thing to do, it seems to me, is to have a leash law for children. (I. personally, am in favor of a law which would require children to be on a leash any time they were off their own property; on their own property they could run loose — give them some reedom, I sav.)

Keeping children on a leash would have innumerable bene-fits. For one, it would keep children from running in gangs doto lawns and shrubbery. Check Existing Law

Monday, March 10, 1958 16 Considine Rd. Newton Ctr., 59, Mass.

Dear Editor: In reading over the Letters to The Editor column of last week's Graphic, I was a little amused and quite appalled by the emotional calibre of the arguments used, both pro and on the proposed Leash Law.

I, myself, am on record as opposed to this law, but my reapotentially dangerous and unrealistic. Dangerous because it s unduly restrictive and cannot help but result in wholesale vio lations. This law is unrealistic because it cannot be enforced without prohibitive cost to the city of Newton. A law which cannot be enforced has no business being presented before a busy Board of Aldermen for onsideration. Instead of going off "halfcocked," why don't we read over and examine the existing law? I did, and I find that the Mass. Code of Laws pertaining to dogs is very interesting. Chapter 140, Section 157 says that any person may complain to the Law Authority of his community in writing, against an offending dog. The Authority will investigate and can impose fine of not more than $10.00, or not more than 30 days in jail, or both, upon the dog owner.

Think this law is not strong enough? Think the Dog Officer of our community does not have enough authority? Then, let's channel some of this misguided enthusiasm to ward either a more stringent enforcement of the existing law or towards making this law more tenable and more pertinent for our particular community.

Is Opposed

I am opposed to a full time leash law in Newton for the following reasons:

1. Dogs, especially large ones, cannot remain healthy

2. A full time leash law might result in depriving many children from keeping dogs, if exercise for them is restricted to walking on a leash. Such a plan is not always practical for many families. Boys who grow up with the companionship of a dog are not often found on deliquent lists.

3. Dogs who are well trained and not an annoyance in a neighborhood should not ing, as they do, untold damage made to suffer because of a

4. Dog owners pay license screaming bedlam as they are now. People could walk the return. A full time leash law streets without fear of having would be difficult to enforce, some moppet two feet away as a dog might temporarily splash through a puddle on his escape from his home bondage bicycle. Children would not and would then be liable to poke through rubbish barrels, capture by police or dog-

In a city like Newton such restrictive law is not compatiole with the out-door life and individual freedom, which the suburbs were designed for.

Against Leash Law

I cast my vote against the idea of a "leash law". Through the good offices of your paper may the voting population of Newton be advised of the impending travesty.

It appears to me that our political philosophy and way of government always leaves the large uninformed or lethargic majority prone to the successful attack of the small but well organized and extremely vocal minority. The latter need only to get the majority of the votes cast when only a minority of the total electorate bother to

This "dog leash" subject is going to be another case in point. It is not a matter that affects the taxpayers' personal poc-ketbook, nor is it a life and death matter. The greatest part of Newton voters will undoubt edly sleep right through the entire affair.

It is my personal belief that a statistical analysis of the number of complaints about dog can be made and show that but a few people are the com-plainants. But their complaints are loud and numerous. As time goes on, the records at the Police Department or there is no human being who can run a dog fast enough on just the number of calls, will grow weighty.

This is not an attack on the proponents of the law as individuals. Their complaints are probably based on real and ustified incidents. It is simply a plea to use the existing laws o their fullest, to not impose upon all present and future dog owners, an unworkable and undesirable law which will surely make many of us from 8 to 80 law-breakers every day of our

A total of 10,269 persons marked and sent in ballots to record themselves on the leash law question. This was many times the number who balloted last year when The Graphic conducted a similar poll on the sales tax. That public feeling on the matter is running extremely high was evident from the scores upon scores of letters, far too many to publish, which accompanied the ballots.

All the signs indicate that the Aldermanic chamber next Monday night will be the scene of one of the hottest public hearings in years.

Indeed, the likelihood is that the chamber will be inadequate to accomodate all the persons who will desire to record themselves for or against a leash

Last year the Board of Aldermen rejected a petition for a modified leash law which would have prohibited dogs from run-ning loose in school buildings or on school yards or playgrounds between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The measure turned down last summer was much less restrictive than the one the Newton PTA Council now is seeking to have placed on the statute books.

So much public support has been marshalled behind the present petition that it is considered almost certain that some ordinance will be adopted to curb the roamings of dogs, particularly in the vicinity of schools and play grounds and at times when

The hearing next Monday night before the Board of Aldermen will start at 7:30 p.m. The petition for a leash law is the first item on the Aldermanic calendar for the night. Spokesmen for the PTA Council are expected to spearhead the fight for a full-time leash

One big delegation of objectors to the move will be led by Alfred W. Halper of 5 Wiswall rd., Newton Centre, well known builder, who has waged a tremendous fight against a leash law.

A second group of opponents will be headed by Prescott H. Brown of West Newton who has formed an organization known the Dog Lovers of Newton. All three groups made statements in support of their stands as they prepared for the showdown clash next Monday night.

Halper, while emphasizing his unqualified opposition to the petition for a full-time leash law, indicated his will-ingness to compromise on an ordinance which would prevent dogs from running loose in school buildings and yards.

"In this highly emotional con trovery," said Halper, "one easily loses sight of the real issue If dogs at school are the prob lem, let us unify our efforts to remedy this situation at once.

"The solution I offer is one that even now would carry the endorsement of the PTA Council had not hysteria and misdired tion induced a more devious couse," Halper stated.

"Harassed dog owners wil graciously accept it," he continued. "School principals, the posal is that the Board of Aldermen reject the pending petition requesting a full-time leach law and that in its stead the board consider an ordin-ance prohibiting dogs from running loose in public school buildings and on public school grounds during school hours."

Members of the legislative committee of the PTA Council, however, asserted that they intend to carry through their fight for a full-time dog re-straint law "in an effort to rem-

"Dogs in schools or on playgrounds interfere with classes, recreation and physi-cal education periods. In re-ports from Newton school principals, requested by Dr. Gores last year, 27 principals reported chronic difficulties of varying degrees. Only 4 reports stated there was no problem or only occasional difficulty."

The PTA Council members said that last year, when they petitioned the Aldermen for a school-time dog restraint law. one of the reasons given for dismissing the request was that a part-time leash law would be ex-

He said his compromise pro part-time leasn law would be extremely difficult to enforce.

"If this be so, the PTA Council believes that it is imperative that a full-time or perative that a full-time or perat dinance be enacted, particular ly since the welfare of children at all times is a legiti-mate interest of PTA."

Other reasons cited by the PTA legislative committee for seeking a dog restraint law "1. Citizens on public ways are harassed, jumped upon, mauled and sometimes bitten by uncontrolled dogs. "2. Many dogs create traffic hazards, running in the streets, jumping in front of cars and edy a long-standing city-wide barking and snapping at car

"3. Many parents fear to put babies out for airings in cardogs.
"4. Unrestrained dogs tres-

In Supporting Role

Rochelle Clifton of Newtonville, a student at LaGrange College, LaGrange, Georgia, has been chosen to play a support-ing role in William Inge's Pulitizer Prize play "Picnic", to be presented by the LaGrange College Curtain Raisers March 26. Rochelle is a sophomore at the college and is the daughter of Mrs. Florence Clifton of 97 Austin street, Newtonville.

dog diseases are spread by freeroaming animals.

They quoted Carlton E. Buttrick, president of the Animal Rescue League, as asserting that some form of restraint law is needed for the protec-tion of the dogs themselves. Also cited was a statement by Dr. James A. Baker, director of the Cornell Research Labora-"Dogs, singly and in groups, in and around schools and school approaches, frighten children, knock them down are the cornell Research Laboratory for Diseases of Dogs, that the first thing a dog owner should learn is never to let a dog run loose.

Under the terms of the ordinance proposed by the PTA Council, a dog officer or other authorized person would pick up any dog roaming at large and return him to his owner if possible. The owner would be liable to a fine of up to $10 each time the wandering canine was so picked up.
The PTA legislative committee maintained that a dog re-straint law would not only protect Newton children but also make the city itself a "cleaner, friendlier, safer, more attractive and more desirable place in which to live."

Prescott H. Brown, in oppossing a leash law, displayed a statement by Eric H. Hansen, president of the Massachusetts Society for the Preven-tion of Cruelty to Animals, in which Hansen expressed the hope that the City of Newton "will not enact a dog leash law but will continue to permit its citizens to own these fine pets and enjoy their daily lives with them without the restraint of a leash."

"This Society and many dog owners feel that having their dogs tied up constantly might well alter their disposition, thus defeating everything those in favor of a leash law wish to accomplish," Hansen stated.

Hansen further said that "ample legislation is available to take care of almost any given babies out for airings in car-riages or playpens because of the activities of free-roaming necessary.

Brown maintained that the drive for a leash law to curb the activities of dogs is being pressed by only about a dozen members of the PTA Council. dangerous and undesirable for He said that a great majority of dogs. In Drug Business Fifty Years At Same Location

"Doing business at the same old stand" is a phrase that has real meaning for George A. Edmands, well-known Newton druggist who retired last month after 50 full years as proprietor of the drugstore bearing his name at the corner of Walnut St. and Newtonville Ave.

Newtonville Square was a relatively vacant space back in 1908 when Edmands set up shop in the Masonic Building, with a few other commercial establishments and some doctors' offices punctuating the empty lots.

But the high school was near-ed a grand supply of cards and note papers... There are so many pretty shower cards, invitations and "Thank you notes."... and never forget to keep PAX out of the reach of children... It is a poison and must be treated as one.

"Thank you notes."... and never forget to keep PAX out of the reach of children... It is a poison and must be treated as one.

"Thank you notes."... and never forget to keep PAX out of the reach of children and formerly lived on Water-town St. Active for many years .. You may never know how in the Newtonville Improvement Association and the Central Congregational Church he also recently marked his 25th year as a Rotarian.

In the '20s and '30s, before the ice cream shops came along, Edmands' was a popular hangout for teen-agers. But as a registered pharmacist, Edmands has always been more interested in the apothecary aspects of the business and has been happy when he could turn the fountain and other duties over to responsible help. One such employee has been with Ed-mands for 36 years.

Born in Newburyport, he graduated from high school there before coming to Boston in 1898 to work in a Boylston street drug store and attend the Massachusetts College of Phar-

After 10 years of this, Ed-mands decided the "only way to get ahead" was to go in business for himself, and commenced to look around for a likely spot. His only change since he found one on April 6, 1908, was to move three doors down in the same building to meet space needs.

Prescription work has changed a good deal in the past 50 years, Edmands allows. In the early 1900's, the bulk of the work was making up headache powders, cough syrups, and laxatives, most of which are made commercially and patented now.

In later years it was his res ponsibility to keep up with the demands of the new medicines, first the sulfas, then penicillin,

Dr. Harry T. Phillips, Director of Public Health of Newton, was the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Newton Visiting Nurse Association held Monday at the a recia-

He reviewed briefly the history of the Board of Health in this city since the first appoint ment of a full time Health Officer in 1877 and stated that during this period of 80 years, many advances had been made pointed out that while some diseases have almost disappeared, others which were unknown fifty years ago, have appeared and cited infantile paralysis and coronary thrombosis, among others.

Annual reports were read by Mrs Frank L. Springer, secretary; Walter Tebbetts, treasurere; and by chairmen of the various committees as fol-

It's an Easy Step from Dreaming to Driving!

Here he is at last-just a few miles out on his maiden journey-with his hands on the wheel and his head in the clouds. It's his!

And yet, truth to tell, he does have one regret. For he knows that he needn't have waited this long, had he but realized what an easy step it is from dreaming of a Cadillac to driving in a Cadillac.

Like a great many motorists, for instance, he was. not aware that a Cadillac-in view of its obvious virtues-could be so modest in price.

Nor did he appreciate, until the facts were presented, how economical a Cadillac is to maintain or how wonderfully it holds its value over the years.

And little did he suspect how accommodating his dealer would be in welcoming him to membership in the great and distinguished family of Cadillac owners.

So, if you have your heart set on a Cadillac, you should hesitate no longer to investigate this happy set of circumstances.

In fact, why not visit your dealer today? He will be happy to help you select your favorite Cadillac model with your favorite Fleetwood interior-be it the luxurious Sixty-Two Coupe or the magnificent Eldorado Brougham.

Dear Sir:

Newton Graphic

The controversial issue of a Leash Law arouses, mixed feelngs in every citizen. Basically, not one of us can resist a pup py's love nor deny the attatchment of an animal for its mas ter. But there is something more at stake. It isn't the welcome at the door that we discuss. It's the hollow fear for the dog that goes out of bounds and bites. It becomes an important issue when children are afraid to walk their own street because the big dogs are chasing anyone who comes along.

The Leash Law becomes major issue when adults will call a cab rather than risk the fear of walking to a bus stop and passing a neighborhood police dog with a record of biting

After each biting incident and brief restrained period required by law this dog is given unlimited freedom again. The Leash Law affects every family when children decide to get off at bus stops where they can avoid the big dogs-they hope even if it means going beyond their street.

For years I have worked for community projects and would be the first to defend a just and worthy cause. I believe, how-ever, that a pet is a family's personal pride and pleasure and that the animal should remain within the family circle and on a leash when mingling in the community. The majority of dog owners do not realize the situation that is created by permitting their pets to run freely. More children and adults would enjoy the garden streets of Newton from the sidewalks instead of car windows if the ani-

the best care that can be provided. A family pet enriches the entire family's life. At the same time, however, I would not deny the citizen his right to walk without fear on the streets of his town. Only Dog Owners Vote? 52 Elm Street West Newton, Mass

March 6, 1958 Editor, Newton Graphic

In view of the fact that the proposed leash law directly affects dogs and their owners only such owners should vote on this issue. Many of the peowho will vote in favor the leash law are opposed to dogs and other animals, many dog-haters, and none of animals in mind. The percentage of dogs in this community who in any way constitute a nuisance or danger is so small posal is very great.

It would surely seem that the PTA, many of whose members are not in favor of a leash law, would have more important matters to attend to than becoming vociferous busybodies a situation that could have been otherwise solved in a calmer climate; but now that the PTA has made such an issue of this matter, the emotions of those on both sides of the fence are aroused and the solution will solve nothing and en-rage half the community. My dog is not allowed to roam at will, being put outloors only at various intervals of the day, for no more than ten minutes at a time, unless a member of the family is also outside. Why should he and the highly vocal and well-organized campaign being carried out three 15-year-old boys went out dicament. and assaulted a citizen. I don't tinue to do so.

Editor, Newton Graphic: While I don't own a dog, I love them as much as the ardent Mr. Halper who is quoting dog verse in his appeal to prevent the leash law.

I dislike it as much as anyone. However, as I wrote Mr. Halper in essence, as a property owner I am subjected to a numthem have the welfare of the ber of dogs using my lawns as a latrine, digging holes and in general running all over the place. On days rubbish is put out for collection, I'm obliged to pick up the rubbish dogs as to be negligible. But the have dragged around after gonumber of animals to be discriminated against by this proing through cans. Of course, if I got mad and let it lay, I'd be considered a poor citizen.

It's my humble opinion that people who own pets should train them to keep within their property or fence it in to allow it the freedom of running freedom of running around their place and not over everyone elses. The leash law would not be necessary if such people would respect the property of others.

I certainly wouldn't beat up a dog just to keep him off my land. It's certainly no fault of the dog who is improperly trained by its master if he does

It would appear to me these people should search their own consciences to determine how right they are in permitting their dogs the luxury of other people's lawns. It's their inconothers like him be deprived of sideration of others that brings this limited exercise because of about the demand for such a law.

I trust you understand my by the PTA and all the animal-haters in Newton? After all, if to of others in the same pre-

Does Your Insurance Only Work a 40 Hour Week?

What happens if you have an automobile accident late at night? Can you immediately phone the person from whom you bought your insurance and get help and advice without delay? You can if you are insured through an independent insurance agent. You can reach your independent agent at any hour of the day or night. He'll tell you about collecting your claim—what to do and how to do it. If someone is injured, if it is important to locate witnesses and document the facts, whatever you need, you can count on your local insurance specialist. Don't settle for insurance that provides help only during the business day, forty hours a week. Make sure that help is available quickly, day and night. Deal with an independent insurance agent!

Police Wives Aim Card Poll At Raise-Cutting Aldermen

Tax-conscious Newton Aldermen who were preparing to slice a substantial edge off the schedule of wage hikes for municipal employees recommended by Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., were coming up against two obstructions on their whetstone this week.

One rough spot on the stone was Alderman Joseph G.

The other was an organization of wives of Newton Police Officers.

Angry police wives, pleading not only their own case, but that of the firefighters and teachers as well, launched a post card campaign which they hoped would swing enough Aldermen to obtain the passage of the Mayor's Beautifully written letters in amazingly correct English have been received by divisions 8 and 10 of the ninth grade at the Warren Junior High School, West Newton.

The letters followed a pen-pal the box office, or from mem-bers of the participating music Walsh and two Japanese teachers, Mrs. Tomokages Moki and T. Nagashima, 1420 Kamakura, Kanagawa, Japan.

After the pupils read their letters to the class, they answered them and sent their letters air mail to the pupils in the Mission Junior High School in Kanagawa, about an hour's ride trom Tokyo. The letters were the second group sent to the classes, but as their Japanese teacher explained to Miss Walsh in her letter, "Sorry to say, they lost their way for America and were extinguished in the sea.'

From the Japanese letters the pupils learned much about the schools and customs of the Japanese people.

One of the major casualty insurance companies has sent out an appeal beseeching youngsters to go a little slower in catching up with the Russians and Sputnick.

It seems that since the Soviets succeeded in getting their fireworks up into the stratosphere to flirt with the moon and the stars some 10,000 Americans, most of them boys and girls, have joined rocket clubs. The whole idea is mushrooming, and the casualty outfit doesn't know where it's all going to end.

It isn't that the casualty people aren't against American youth catching up and passing the Russians.

They want the clubs to switch from live model experiments to research and study programs. Gabriel is relinquishing in order to seek election to Congress. It is logical to assume on the face of all the evidence that McLean not only did not encourage Ford to remain in the race for Attorney General but that he probably advised him to set his sights on some other office. That certainly is a reasonable conclusion to draw.

Two plus do not always make four in politics, but recent developments at Republican State headquarters seem to indicate that Chairman McLean expects both Herter and Fingold to be on the GOP ticket next autumn.

Whichever of the two fails in his bid for the gubernatorial endorsement obviously will be urged to accept the endorsement for either Lieutenant Governor or Attorney General, and the way apparently is being kept open for such a move.

Whether McLean will be able to accomplish such a lineup is uncertain. What Fingold would do if he loses to Herter at the Worcester convention is not known. The guessing is that he would prefer to stand for reelection to a fourth term as Attorney General rather than shift and run for Lieutenant Governor.

Herter has intimated to close friends that if he should be unsuccessful in his quest for the guberna-torial endorsement he will step aside and seek reelection to the Governors' Council. The dynamic Councillor from all reports is not interested in running for either Attorney General or Lieutenant

In the same period one former Attorney General also achieved election as Governor. He was Paul A. Dever. But he didn't exactly use the Attorney Generalship as a springboard to higher office. There was an eight-year lapse between his service as Attorney General and Governor. In fact, when Dever ran for Governor in 1940, while still serving as Attorney General, he lost to Leverett

One political columnist on a Boston daily newspa-per suggested recently that Governor Furcolo's position has deteriorated to such an extent that Herter and Fingold may be so anxious to oppose him next November that they might both run in the September primary, ir-respective of what happens at the Republican pre-pri-mary convention.

Don't Know the Facts

Editor, Newton Grophic: If the people who are so against the dog population of Newton would only stop and think a moment, they might save many dogs from the tor-tures of the leash.

If these people asked their children who the dogs are that are always in and around their they would find that their children can name them. The same dogs are always there so children can name them. The same dogs day after day, week after week, month after month, and even year after year.

Why not punish these dogs? Why punish the dog who ignores their children even after his tail is pulled, his ears in twenty different places? Why punish the dog who does not know his way to the schools?

Why? I definitely cast my vote against this terrible and unjust law, when the people who want it, don't even know the facts. Sincerely, Robert M. A

Community Relations

Editor, Newton Graphic:

The debate about the leash law has revealed in Newton a situation which is far more serious than the dog problem. There exists in Newton beneath a thin crust of politeness, reservoirs of hatred which threaten the City whenever some 10:00-3:00-Hyde Outgrown strain produces a crack in the crust. It should be possible to discuss public issues without undue rancor and especially without the injection of religious and racial bias. Yet during 10:00-3:30—Memorial School the debate over the leash law a Phrift Shop, Oak Hill Park public official received an Shopping Area.

That is not likely to happen. In the first place, there s a good deal of doubt that Furcolo's prestige and popularity have diminished to the point where he is certain of encountering defeat next November. While his political stock obviously is low, there is still time for it to take an upsurge before the fall campaign.

Secondly, the Republicans, unlike their Democratic counterparts, have a habit of standing behind the choices of their party convention. Any candidate defeated at the GOP pre-primary conclave would face a rugged, uphill fight if he then undertook to run in the September primary.

The entire Republican State organization would be against him, and party discipline would be brought into play in determined fashion. In fact, a Republican who defied a convention edict would be just about reading himself out of the party.

Another factor also would enter into the picture. Al though it hasn't received a great deal of publicity, the September primary this year will be held a week earlier than usual—just eight days after Labor Day. It was moved ahead because of the Jewish holidays. There isn't going to be much time for serious campaigning next September. It is an accepted axiom in politics that the voters don't pay close attention to pri-mary contests until after Labor Day.

By the time the people this year turn their attention to September fights for party nominations, the primary will be upon them.

These are not the first incidents in which bias and prejudice have received overt expression in Newton. The beating of a high school student is of too cent memory. The imposition of housing segregation on mem bers of minority groups still occurs. And now, in the course of a debate on a public issue prejudice is expressed under protection of the coward's

When the dog issue has been settled, I hope that Newton will turn its attention to this more serious problem. We have had our religious census. We ought now, on an organized community basis, to examine ourselves and determine how the members of this community of mixed religious and racial back grounds live together. Having done this, we may discover that more than dogs need to be

Emanuel Honors Cantor Hochberg On April 17th

Cantor Gabriel Hochberg will be honored by the congrega-tion of Temple Emanuel on the occasion of his 20th year as cantor in Newton.

A special event is being plan-ned for April 17 in the Temple sanctuary and the Community Hall. A musical program in the sanctuary will be followed by an evening of good fellowship in the Community Hall.

The cantor came to Newton in 1938 and, in addition to his duties in that capacity, he served as principal of the Hebrew School for 10 years.

> Students are counting credits and juggling courses as they are presently attempting to choose courses of study for next year. Among the latest elec-tives available to the Newtonte are courses in Russian. (open only to students who will be juniors next September) and in law. Next year there will also be a new math course for those sophomores who have completed the present course at Bigelow and Meadowbrook Junior Highs. The main feature of the new method of study is that it expresses good study is that it stresses geometry as a pure deductive theory, and encourages the student to figure things out for himself rather than to work with numercal facts all the time.

Second half-year courses started recently. The two new courses that come under this heading are Hand Print Processes and Fashion Design. The former class meets twice a week, gives the student one credit toward graduation, and does not require homework. It emphasizes block-print, silk screen, and mono-print pro-cesses. The latter is a two-andone-half credit course, held four times a week, which teaches the student the study of color, line and texture appropriate for different types of people. This class does not require homework either.

One of the most recent undertakings of the Legislature is an attempt to acquire more parking area for those students who drive their cars to school. In the past years the student parking space has been con-stantly diminishing. Because of sloppy student behavior, many residential streets around the school now enforce strict one-hour parking limits. However, a committee from the Legislature is serking the reattainment of these streets, or others, with the promise that students will not blow horns in the mornings, empty cigarette ashes on lawns, or behave in any other improper ways. Ken Winston represented Newton High at Student Government Day last Friday.

At a meeting of the Nova Scotia Exchange Group, Mr. Curry spoke to the pupils about Yarmouth, Nova Scotia, its history and government.

have been brought. Honest differences of opinion have been expressed. The community has become well informed with respect to the matter."

In outlining the PTA Council's reasons for urging the adoption of a dog restraint law, Uehlein said that "dogs, singly and in groups, in and around schools and school approaches, frighten children, knock them lown, maul or bite them.'

that no dog-owner be permitted to allow his pet to run loose in Newton. He explained that the measure would allow a dog trained to obey commands to be off his leash when accom-panied by his owner and under the latter's control.

He suggested the appointment of a dog officer who would pick up any canine found running at large in the city and re-turn the animal to its owner, if possible. A "reasonable monetary fine" would be assessed for each infraction. When it was impossible to return a dog to its owner, the latter would be required to pay the kennel charges while his pet was in custody.

Other arguments advanced by Uehlein in support of a leash aw were:

1. Citizens on public streets are harassed, jumped upon, mauled and sometimes bitten by uncontrolled dogs, with the situation "particularly dangerir elder citizens

2. Many dogs create traffic hazards, running in the street, jumping in front of cars and barking and snapping at car wheels.

3. Some parents fear to put bables out for an airing in their carriages or playpens because of the activities of free-roaming dogs.

4. Unrestrained dogs damage gardens, lawns and shrubs. Uncontrolled freedom is dangerous and undesirable for dogs, with 2 out of every 5 unrestrained canines meeting death under the wheels of auto-

6. Dogs topple ash barrels and cause some Newton streets to resemble "slum areas."

Leash Law Backers Asked To Write To Aldermen

spokesman for the Newton PTA Council today urged all persons, who favor the enactment of a leash law to re strain the activities of New ton dogs, to write to their Aldermen stating their views on the pending proposal. That statement was issued after supporters of the leash law petition were greatly outnumbered by the opponents at an Aldermanic hearing Monday night.

that sentiment in the Meadowbrook PTA was 60 per cent signatures opposing the leash law petition.

Cohen quoted Eric Hansen, president of the Massachusetts Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, as being opposed to a full-time leash law but as not being against some reasonable restraint upon the activities of dogs.

Family Service Presents Play At Annual Meeting

"The Broken Circle," a play by Nora Stevens, was presented by the Family Service Bureau of Newton at its annual meeting March 11 at the Grace Episcopal Church in Newton. The play, an American Theatre Wing production, portrayed the counseling in an unhappy family sit-uation by a Family Agency caseworker. This realistic drama was interpreted by members of the Newton Players, who gave their time and talents as a service to the Bureau. The cast included Hortense Railsback, Doris Shiek, Roger Shiek and Jack Breen, who also served as director. They were assisted by Edith May and Record Rogers.

meeting which preceded the play, the president, Mrs. Felix W. Knauth, introduced the bureau's committee chairment The committe reau's committee chairmen. The play and the oral reports by the committee chairmen were presented to illustrate the philosophy of Mrs. Knauth, who in her remarks to the group emphasized the need for a better understanding of the services bureau which will offer five min. understanding of the services of the agency by the public. She also expressed her opinion that "the responsibility for interpreting the social agencies to the community should be the large of the agency states and the agency states where the social agencies to ganizations in the city.

Rabbi Harold D. Kastle, membership chairman, described the

NHS Plans Rummage Sale For Saturday

Members of the Newton High School and school exchange program feel sure that they can help reduce the cost of living for area residents with their big rummage sale, to be held Saturday, March 22nd.

More than 60 students from the High School have been busy for weeks collecting many useful household items and clothing to be offered at very low prices on Saturday. Everything from men's suits and women's dresses, shoes, sweaters to lamps, vases, pot and pans and even bicycles will be offered at the High School gym-

During the middle of April, students from the Newton High School will play hosts to students from high schools in Washington, D.C. and Yarmouth, Nova Scotia. Several events and tours have been planned for the visiting stu-dents and proceeds of the rum-mage sale will help to defray ert Dana, finance committee; Harry L. Walen, third vice-Ball and Mrs. Meyer Armet, with Mrs. Arthur Gordon and Mrs. Edgar S. Burkhardt, house president; Mrs. Robert Royster, chairman.

Beautiful Right to Jaw Gives DeNucci KO Over Brown in 6

Split seconds before the bell rang to end the sixth round, Joe DeNucci threw the best punch of his professional career on St. Patrick's Night at Boston Garden. It travelled 12 inches. It landed at an imaginary point on the chin of Sergeant Jackson Brown.

When the bell sounded for the start of the seventh round, Sergeant Brown was still in Dreamland. His seconds informed the referee that he was through work for

Thus, the former Newton schoolboy finally added the name of the stubborn Brown to the list of ring foes he has met and defeated by a kayo. And this time there was no doubt about the verdict. It goes into the record books as a seventh round knockout.

It was the third time that De-Nucci was obliged to establish his superiority over Sergeant Brown. In their first encounter Joe copped the verdict. there were those at ringside who declared he would not have survived another round of fighting against Brown that night. In their second bout, Joe was given another decision. This time the crowd booed. A lot of them thought that the judges and the referee were overkind to an ambitious teen-ager—just helping him along with a build-up.

There was no question of kindness or gifts on St. Patrick's Night which found the DeNucci - Brown fight sand wiched in one of Sammy Silverman's four-decker fistic cards with a $5 top.

A Greek named Jimmy Kelly decked a bonafide Hibernian named Jimmy Connors; Billy Ryan of Lowell, seeking a comeback, beat a battler named Bad Willie Gray, a jail guard, called Joe Devlin, belted out a three-round win over Tony Veranis, them were pretty good. For effectiveness, power and accura-cy none was as good as the one Joe threw near the end of his scheduled nine-rounder with Brown.

It was probably the best fight of Joe's professional career. In view of the extra-special finality of its end it was a good one to watch.

In the second round DeNucci sent Brown to the deck. But the Sergeant got up after that one and from then until the wonder punch came in the sixth round it was really a go. Indeed, it was settling into a pattern in which DeNucci supporters found cause for worry. They were due to go nine rounds and there's still a question in many ring filberts' minds whether the teen-ager from Tiger Town is strong enough to go that distance.

You won't be able to prove anything about that particular point on the results of this fight. DeNucci's St. Patrick's Day punch took care of that.

The win was the most impressive of his pro career. It kept his escutcheon unmarred by defeat and it probably ended the DeNucci-Brown series Now Mr. Silverman will be obliged to dig up a new face for Joe to try out that punch.

Must Get Safety Sticker in April

Local automobile owners were reminded today by Reg-istrar of Motor Vehicles Clement A. Kiley that they must obtain windshield stickers for their cars during April certifying that the vehicles have passed a safety inspec-tion test.

The Registrar advised moorists to secure the stickers early in the coming month and avoid possible delays which occur near the close of the month.

Claims Mann Auditorium Is A Dangerous Fire Hazard

That the third-floor auditorium of the 64-year-old Horace Mann School in Newtonville presents a dangerous fire hazard is the contention of members of its PTA who are urging that immediate steps be taken to replace or renovate the structure.

Dr. C. Wesley Watson, chairman of the PTA's Health and Safety Committee, pointed out at a recent panel discussion of the problem, that the two wooden stairwells which serve as exits from the auditorium are without fire doors and would act as flues if fire broke out.

Urges Proposed Salary Boost For City Employees Be Pared

Efforts will be made by spokesmen and leaders of city employee groups at a public hearing Saturday afternoon to persuade a majority of the members of the Board of Aldermen to overturn the recommendation of their finance committee and grant the full salary increases proposed by Mayor Howard Whitmore, Jr., for the municipal

The Aldermanic finance committee on Monday night recommended that $110,000 be slashed from the salary appropriation in the budget submitted by the Mayor. That would leave enough funds to give a $100-a-year pay raise to all permanent city workers and a 4-cent-an-hour hike to those employed on an hourly basis.

Mayor Whitmore had recommended that members of the police and fire departments be given a $250-a-year boost, that employees with the rating of principal clerk or higher be raised $150 and that workers below the rank of principal clerk or additional $120 by the rank of principal clerk get an additional $120. Services and Taxes

One of the speakers at a recent Needham town meeting observed in retrospect how one horse and a plow did a nice job in the old days plowing the sidewalks of the town.

The speaker was backing a measure calling for the purchase of some new sidewalk plows. He followed another speaker who deplored this modern day and age which finds many sidewalks in many a residential area unplowed after a severe New England storm.

Then a veteran from the Public Works Department explained that you'd have to have lots and lots more plows in order to plow all the sidewalks. He explained further that you would have to have lots and lots more manpower,

He didn't go into detail but you didn't need a pocket adding machine to figure out that Needham or any other city or town could go flat broke in very fast order if it attempted to carry out the wishes of those who expect every sidewalk in town plowed within a "reasonable" time after every tough storm.

A few horses and a few men could do a lot in the old days. But dobbin didn't cost much money. His oats didn't cost a lot either. And the man who ran the plow didn't get double overtime. He was lucky if his take-home pay was $11 per week.

Besides that, there weren't so many sidewalks. That item on the town warrant and the debate it provoked wasn't very big in the scheme of things now-a-days. Just a minor, passing detail.

Yet, it's the sort of thing which mirrors a public at titude that is itself reflected many hundreds of times not alone on town meeting floors or aldermanic chambers; not alone in the hearing rooms of county commissioners. You'll find the reflection many times magnified in the legislative halls of the States and on the floors of Con-

You'll find it reflected, too, in its most startling way, in something we call taxes.

Today the people who scream the loudest when taxes nip and devour are also the people who demand the most in public services.

Some day a State administration may come along which will honestly face the issue of taxes. If and when it does, there may be some easement of the tax-load. If that easement is gained, it will only be because the administration will be honest enough to say to the public — "No you can't have this and you can't have that — it costs too much money.

Then and then only will there be an honest cut in

And the most likely result will be the same honest administration will be booted out of office at the very next felled many other persons for equally long periods of time this winter.

While he was away from the State House, the down. Legislators who wanted promises of patronage from the Governor in return for their votes refused to be swung into line by his subordinates.

Meanwhile, rumor mills, which flourish in a political atmosphere, worked overtime turning out reports which had no basis of fact or truth.

Governor Furcolo may have unwittingly given some credence to them by saying he would make known his political plans within a month, presumably at the Jefferson-Jackson Democratic fund-raising dinner April 19. No one at the State House, however, seriously doubts that Furcolo will be leading the Democratic State ticket in next fall's campaign, although there may be some question as to his political judgment in waiting a month before proclaiming his intention of doing so.

What has happened from a legislative standpoint is that Furcolo's problems have piled up into a political log-jam so that he must face them all at once instead of one at a time, and they do present a pretty formidable ap-

The major problems Governor Furcolo must meet, as this observer sees them, are:

1. Taxes, which means the necessity of finding new revenue to balance the State budget.

2. The inactive and dormant Massachusetts Port Authority, with all its underlying implications.

3. Transportation, particularly commuter rail trans-

The guessing on Beacon Hill is that Governor Furcolo will be able to swing the necessary votes in the State Senate to obtain the passage of the State withholding income tax and a 1 per cent package increase in the tax on cigarettes and thus overcome the State's financial problems for the next fiscal year. To do it he'll have to adjust the compensation for small businessmen for the expense the processing of the withholding returns will impose upon them, and he'll have to exercise all his persuasive talents on a few balky and reluctant Solons. But the likelihood is that he'll be able to work out of that problem, although it isn't any sure bet on which you'd be safe in wagering the family savings.

If Governor Furcolo doesn't succeed in doing that, he'll be in very serious political trouble, a fact he prob-ably recognizes more clearly than anyone else. That incidentally, places those Solons seeking patronage concessions in return for their votes in a strong bargaining

Should the withholding tax measure be defeated, the Governor would have to do one of two things: 1. Obtain the passage of some other tax which would give him the revenue he needs. 2. Or drastically slash State expendi-

How Furcolo can possibly work out of his dilemma involving the Port Authority is a mystery. Certainly,

Tax Rate Jump—

Board of Aldermen will act upon-the budget following Satur-day's hearing, although con-ceivably they could adjourn their session until Monday night and act upon it then.

The Aldermen are known to be split on the matter. Alderman Joseph J. Bradley already has announced publicly that he intends to vote for the salary schedule recommended by Mayor Whitmore for the city em-

Whitmore recommended modest increases for the city's policewomen in the budget he originally submitted to the Aldermen. The finance committee, however, urged that those proposed boosts be eliminated entirely.

Finance Committee Chairman Wood, in explaining his group's recommendations at Monday night's session, said that police and firefighters received a $287 boost in 1956 and a $250 raise last year. He asserted that they also were given paid holidays which represented about another $100 per

Hardest hit by the economy minded and tax-conscious finance committee was the street department whose budget will be cut more than $300,000 if the finance committee report is adopted. The only committee recom-nendation about which there appears to be any doubt, incidentally, is that involving the city employees. All other pro-posals by the committee are virtually certain to be accepted, and the reduction of the salary budget also may be finally approved.

A recommendation by the Mayor that funds be provided for the purchase of voting machines in order to start the mechanization of voting in the city, was turned down by the funner compilities. city, was turned down by the finance committee. A motion by Alderman Theodore Mann that this item be restored was defeated by a 14-3 vote.

One of the factors responsible for the increase coming in this year's Newton tax rate is that school expenses have jumped $813,000 over last year. The city is now spending $364 per pupil as compared to $343 last year.

Mayor Whitmore slashed $422,274 from the estimates of his department heads before submitting his budget to the Board of Aldermen. But the finance committee then undertook to prune the budget in even more drastic fashlon.

"Women need to be as darng in their financing as men," Miss Dorothy Nossett, finance director for the United Church Women, told the morning session. Her topic was "Together in Our Stewardship."
"Stewardship," she said, "is not man's plan for raising money, but God's plan for rais-ing children." She stressed the need for planning exciting, challenging programs that demand the utmost from every woman. A luncheon composed of foods which migrant workers help raise and harvest in Massachu setts was served by the women of the Second Church. Mrs. C. Emanuel Ekstrom, of the Council of Churches, told the delegates that housing for migrants n Massachusetts is the worst to be found on the eastern seaboard. The state has no regulations to govern their housing conditions, she said. Chaplains and lay workers who go out to them help to improve their conditions somewhat, but much more is needed, she added.

TELE-VIEWING THE NEWS

By LEE LOUMOS

The idea that color television is a sure-enough miracle has been expressed by just about everyone who has witnessed it . . . and that includes not just John Q. Public and his family, but the TV dealer, technician and manufacturer as well!

That may seem like a strange admission for a TV dealer to make, but there's a reason for it: Color television IS a phenomenon.. because color itself is a phenomenon, something that none of the world's scientists or philosophers has ever been able to explain thoroughly.

It's generally known that colors do not really exist in nature but only in the mind. It has been learned that certain electro-magnetic waves cause certain colors to resister themselves in the human mind; a frequency of 700 millimicrons, for example, causes us to "see red." We know, too, that all of the thousands of color variations can be produced by combinations of blue, green and red... but no one has explained why a certain combination of the frequencies identified with red and green, for example, will produce a new color—yellow—which has a different wavelength of its own.

Forkunately for all of us the TV

Fortunately for all of us, the agineers and manufacturers have engineers and manufacturers haven found it necessary to explain the miracle of color . . they only have to reproduce it electronically. If you
